

DISASTER CHECKLIST

Hello,

My name is Al Castellanos and I am a licensed Insurance agent associated with the Checklist Depot. Do you know why checklists are important to have? Well I am here to give you that information. Checklists can help us stay more organized by assuring we don't skip any steps in a process. Seeing a list of what you must get done, instead of trying to remember it all, is going to save you a ton of time.

Disaster Checklist is an important list to have. Earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, and wildfires can strike without warning. If there is a natural disaster, you'll want to be prepared. Having a checklist can make you prepared and ready for any disaster.

Things to have ready in case of a disaster

- First-aid supplies (e.g., bandages, antiseptic)
- Prescription medication
- Canned goods, can opener
- Several gallons of water
- Battery-powered radio and extra batteries
- Extra cell phone batteries or portable cell phone power banks
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- Matches in a waterproof container, candles
- Toiletries and personal hygiene items
- Special items for infants (e.g., formula, diapers)
- Protective clothing
- Extra bedding, sleeping bags
- Entertainment (e.g., games, deck of cards, books)
- Small amount of cash
- Plywood
- Rolls of plastic sheeting
- Sandbags
- Shovels

Keep the following items in a safe place off-site or in a waterproof/fireproof container:

- Copies of important documents (e.g., wills, birth and marriage certificates, insurance policies)
- Passports
- Bank account and credit card information
- Home inventory checklist

These and many more tips may help you get ready for a disaster, please check out the complete checklist and other important checklist at our website <https://www.prinsuco.com/Checklist.62.htm>.
